HUMAN CAPITAL AND COMPENSATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

This Human Capital and Compensation Committee Charter of The Children's Place, Inc. (the "Company") was adopted December 10, 2024.

GENERAL

- A. Purposes. The Human Capital and Compensation Committee (the "HCC Committee") shall (i) oversee the development, implementation and effectiveness of the Company's policies, practices, initiatives and disclosures related to its human capital management activities, including policies and processes related to the recruitment, development, retention, incentivization and appraisal of management resources and talent management, (ii) oversee the development, implementation and effectiveness of the Company's policies, practices, initiatives and disclosures related to other human capital management activities, specifically workforce diversity, equity and inclusion, (iii) determine the compensation of the Company's executive officers to ensure alignment with the Company's strategy and performance and assist the Board in determining the compensation of the Chief Executive Officer and of independent Directors, (iv) review and adopt policies that govern the Company's compensation and benefit programs and plans, including incentive compensation plans, (v) review and assess the Company's processes to manage and mitigate risk, if any, arising from the Company's compensation plans, human capital management activities, and related policies and practices, (vi) review and assess the Company's plans for executive officer (including CEO) succession, and (vii) fulfill the responsibilities set forth in this Charter and as may be delegated to this Committee by the Board.
- B. Authority to Retain Outside Advisors; Adequate Resources. The HCC Committee shall have the resources and authority to discharge its duties and responsibilities, including the authority to select, retain, terminate and approve the fees and other retention terms of human capital and compensation consultants, special counsel and other experts or consultants, as it deems appropriate, without seeking approval of the Board or management. In selecting and retaining such consultants, counsel and experts the HCC Committee shall review and consider the independence factors enumerated by the applicable listing standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market and the applicable rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"), including Rule 10C under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act").

HUMAN CAPITAL AND COMPENSATION COMMITTEE MEMBERSHIP

- A. Independence. The HCC Committee shall consist of two or more members of the Board, each of whom the Board has selected and determined (i) to be "independent" for purposes of compensation committee membership in accordance with applicable listing standards of the Nasdaq Stock Market and with the applicable rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, including Rule 10C under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act"), however, in recognition of our status as a controlled company under NASDAQ Rule 5615(c), which defines a controlled company as one where more than 50% of the voting power for the election of directors is held by an individual, group, or another company, the HCC Committee is not required to be composed entirely of independent directors (NASDAQ Listing Rules 5605(d) and 5605(e); (ii) to be a “non-employee director” within the meaning of Rule 16b-3 under the Exchange Act, and (iii) to the extent relevant, be an “outside director” within the meaning of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code.

- B. Procedural Matters. HCC Committee members shall continue to be members as long as they remain Directors and until their successors as committee members are elected and qualified or until their earlier death, incapacity, resignation or removal. The Board, with or without cause, may remove any member at any time. The Chair of the HCC Committee shall be appointed from among the HCC Committee members by, and serve at the pleasure of, the Board, shall preside at meetings of the HCC Committee, and shall have authority to convene meetings, set agendas for meetings, and determine the HCC Committee’s information needs, except as otherwise provided by action of the HCC Committee. In the absence of the Chair at a duly convened meeting, the HCC Committee shall select a temporary substitute from among its members to serve as chair of the meeting.

MEETINGS

The HCC Committee shall meet on a regularly scheduled basis at least four times per year and additionally as circumstances dictate. The HCC Committee shall establish its own schedule of meetings. Meetings of the HCC Committee may be held in-person, telephonically or by videoconference. A majority of the members of the HCC Committee shall constitute a quorum for a meeting and the affirmative vote of a majority of members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall constitute the action of the HCC Committee. The HCC Committee shall otherwise establish its own rules of procedure.

RESPONSIBILITIES

- A. Responsibilities Calendar. The Committee’s specific responsibilities in carrying out its oversight role are delineated in the HCC Committee Responsibilities Calendar, with the understanding that the HCC Committee’s activities may diverge as appropriate given the circumstances. On an annual basis, the Responsibilities Calendar will be reviewed, and updated as necessary to reflect changes in regulatory requirements, authoritative guidance issued by governmental regulatory agencies, and evolving oversight practices. The most recently updated Responsibilities Calendar will be considered to be an addendum to this Charter.
- B. Authority. The HCC Committee is authorized to carry out the activities delineated in the HCC Committee Responsibilities Calendar and any other actions reasonably related to the HCC Committee’s purposes or assigned by the Board from time to time.
- C. Delegation of Responsibilities. The HCC Committee may form and delegate any of its responsibilities to (i) a subcommittee so long as such subcommittee is solely comprised of one or more members of the HCC Committee and (ii) committees of officers of the Company designated by the HCC Committee so long as the duties and responsibilities of such committees of officers are established by the HCC Committee.
